

A Guide to your Child's Progress Report

The provincial curriculum, with its focus on Big Ideas, Core Competencies, Curricular Competencies, and essential skills, is intended to be an enabling framework, giving teachers space and flexibility to innovate. The curriculum design respects the unique nature of disciplines while supporting cross curricular learning. The provincial curriculum supports a student-centred, inquiry-based approach to teaching and learning by placing an increased focus on concepts and data that address 'real world' issues and problems.
